

RED RULES are UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR

(Reviewed January 2013)

RED RULES are deemed to be unacceptable behaviour at Port Broughton Area School and incidents will be referred to a member of the Leadership Team for follow up. Parent contact will be made.

UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR is:

1. Fighting, hitting or physically harassing another student(s) or staff member.
2. Verbally harassing, abusing, or insulting another student(s) or staff member.
3. Deliberately misusing equipment or behaving in a manner that is considered to unsafe.
4. Acting in an illegal manner.
5. Interrupting or interfering with students learning and/or teachers instruction.
6. Repeated inattention and indifference to school work.

Consequences will include one or more of the following:

- Focus Room
- Written contract addressing behaviour
- Internal Suspension
- External Suspension
- Exclusion